Information on the processing of personal data by Putzmeister

In connection with the processing of your personal data, Putzmeister is subject to information obligations in accordance with the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The following information is intended to give you an overview of what data is involved, to whom it may be transmitted and for what purposes the processing is necessary. In addition, you will receive information about the rights to which you are entitled in the course of processing your personal data.

Responsibilities

The data controller within the meaning of the EU General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") and all other applicable EU data protection regulations or comparable national regulations is the company with which you are employed or with which you have a business relationship. If you have any questions, suggestions or criticism regarding data protection, please contact your employer / contractual partner.

Origin of personal data

We process personal data that you provide to us in the course of use. In addition, we process – to the extent necessary for the provision of the service/performance of the contract to you – personal data that we have permissibly received from other companies in the Putzmeister Group for the purpose of fulfilment.

Purpose of data processing

We collect the personal data in order to quickly and effectively direct trade fair visitors to the right contact person on site, to book a free meeting room, to check in and out at the trade fair stand and to issue advertising material

Legal basis

GDPR: Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b – Lawfulness of processing (contract)

GDPR: Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f – Lawfulness of processing (legitimate interest)

Legitimate interests

The processing of the personal data provided by you is necessary for the fulfilment of contractual obligations arising from the contract concluded with us. Due to your obligations to cooperate, it is unavoidable to provide the personal data requested by us, otherwise we will not be able to fulfil our contractual obligations.

Data processing for other purposes can only be considered if the legal requirements required in this respect pursuant to Art. 6 (4) GDPR are met. In this case, we will of course comply with any information obligations pursuant to Art. 13 (3) GDPR and Art. 14 (4) GDPR.

For internal administrative purposes in the company/group, the collection/use/disclosure of the data is necessary.

Categories

Username, IP address, language, first name, last name, business name. E-mail address, business address data, professional position and any other data that may be provided.

Storage period

We will delete your data if it is no longer required for the stated purpose and there are no contractual or statutory retention periods

Necessity and consequences of non-provision

The provision of the data is necessary for the intended conclusion of the contract within the framework of the business relationship and the use of the service, provided that this is necessary and/or we are legally obliged to collect the data. If you do not provide your personal data, a valid contract may not be formed.

Automated decision-making and profiling

As a responsible company, we do not use automated decision-making or profiling when collecting your personal data.

Recipients of personal data outside the company

In general, we will only pass on your personal data to other companies of the Putzmeister Group, service providers, business partners and other third parties within the framework of the applicable data protection laws and only within the framework of the agreed purposes.

The following data processors are used for the purpose mentioned here: XFAIR GmbH, Ohmstraße 1, D-85716 Unterschleißheim; and cyber-Wear Heidelberg GmbH, Elsa-Brändström-Strasse 4, 68229 Mannheim. These processors may only process your personal data in accordance with our instructions, cf. inter alia Art. 28 GDPR.

These third parties are not allowed to process your personal data for their own purposes. The processors are subject to our instructions and are subject to strict contractual restrictions in relation to the processing of personal data. According to this, processing is only permitted to the extent that it is necessary for the performance of the services on our behalf or to comply with legal requirements. It is determined in advance exactly what rights and obligations these service providers should have with regard to personal data.

Intention of transfer to a third country or international organisation

Should we transfer your personal data to a country outside the EU/EEA that does not provide the same level of protection as within the EU/EEA, we will ensure that such transfers are carried out in accordance with applicable data protection laws, including the GDPR.

Warranties and Obtaining Warranties

We will only transfer your personal data to a recipient in a third country after concluding standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission. We guarantee that we will transfer your personal data to companies in a third country that are located within our group / group of companies and carry out a joint economic activity on the basis of binding internal data protection regulations. In exceptional cases, according to Art. 49 (1) GDPR, a transfer can take place without guaranteeing an adequate level of data protection, e.g. even if you have validly consented or the transfer is necessary for the performance of the employment relationship.

Rights of data subjects

If your personal data is processed, you are a data subject within the meaning of the GDPR and you are entitled to the following rights vis-à-vis Putzmeister.

You have the right to information about the personal data we process about you. In the case of a request for information that is not made in writing, we ask for your understanding that we may then request proof from you that you are the person you claim to be.

You also have the right to rectification, which means that you can request that we correct your inaccurate personal data without undue delay. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, you have the right to request the completion of incomplete personal data, including by means of a supplementary statement.

You have the right to request the restriction of processing if one of the following conditions applies: You doubt the accuracy of the personal data. You have objected to the processing in accordance with Art. 21 para. 1 GDPR. As long as it is not yet clear whether the legitimate reasons of the controller outweigh you, the processing will be restricted.

You can request that the personal data concerning you be deleted immediately, provided that the conditions (cf. Art. 17 GDPR) are met. The right to erasure does not exist if the processing is necessary due to contractual obligations towards you or due to legal provisions.

If you have asserted the right to rectification, erasure or restriction of processing against us, we are obliged to inform all recipients to whom the personal data concerning you have been disclosed of this correction or deletion of the data or restriction of processing. This does not apply if it proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort (cf. Art. 19 GDPR). If you request it, we will inform you about these recipients.

You have the right to receive the personal data concerning you that you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format (cf. Art. 20 GDPR). You also have the right to transmit this data to another company without hindrance from us, provided that the conditions for this are met.

You have the right to object at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you on the basis of Article 6 (1) sentence 1 (f) GDPR for reasons arising from your particular situation. The consequence of the objection is that we will no longer process the personal data concerning you, unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms, or if the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims. You can either inform us directly or our data protection officer about your objection. If you have submitted a declaration of consent under data protection law, you can revoke it to us at any time (cf. Art. 7 GDPR). Please note that the revocation is effective for the future. The withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent before the withdrawal.

In addition, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the country of your residence, your place of work or the place of the alleged infringement, if you believe that the processing of your personal data violates the GDPR (cf. Art. 77 GDPR). The right of appeal exists without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy.

Changes to this Statement

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We therefore recommend that you review this Privacy Policy regularly so that you are aware of its privacy practices.
